

MUSIC of the USA

The Certificate of Merit Theme Recital for 2007-2008 will feature the music composed in the United States.

Please observe the following requirements:

- The composer must be either American born or has lived/composed in the United States for the majority of his/her life.
- The composition should be published in the United States before 1997. Any music published after 1997 is not eligible for Theme Recital and should be submitted for New Material Festival.
- Refer to the partial listing of American composers on www.mtac.org website (Certificate of Merit 2007-2008 Theme Recital Information.) Composers not on the list are eligible, provided that the first two requirements are met.
